EXPECT CAMPAIGN SPEECH

Wilson May Start Re-election Campaign at Indianapolis.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Democrats, as well as Republicans, are expectantly awaiting President Wilson's speech at Indianapolis on Jackson Day, next Friday. It is believed that the address will mark the opening of his campaign for renomination and re-election in 1916.

There isn't much doubt that the President wants to be renominated if his chances of re-election are bright. With defeat likely, the single-term plank in the Democratic platform, politicians point out, makes his retirement teasy.

Amateur Skaters Work Hard.

Amateur ice skaters who are getting in condition for the season's champion-ship events will compete at the St. Micholas Rink on Wednesday night in the fourth of the series of weekly races. D. M. Baker, who has won three of the mile handleap events for Class A amateurs, will likely have a hard time to capture first honors, as Billy Taylor, Distler and other stars are coming rapidly to form.

If It's Advertised in sarily binding because a platform was not a programme. If prospects look abright the friends of the President will see no alternative but to nominate him. Should conditions in 1916 look omissions for the Democrats, the President's supporters can put him on the one-term plank and pass the nomination over to Bryan, Speaker Clark or any other Democrat who would be willing to make the race.

Quiet New Year in Sweden.

Stockholm (via London), Jan. 3.—All official functions and dinners for the new year have been cancelled owing to the war, it is announced.

Ball Game, Next in Bowling.

Caldwell, N. J., Jan. 3.—Harold Babcock, of this town, is having trouble maintaining a perfectly good knee. Two wears ago, while coasting, he figured in a smash-up and broke a kneecap. The asmash-up and broke it again, this time later Babcock broke it again, this time while sliding in a baseball game.

Last week, while wearing a pair of rubber overshoes, he tried to bowl on one of the local tenpin alleys. The adhesiveness of one of his rubbers caused has foot to, stick to the varnished floor has he made a run on the edge of the as he made a run on the edge of the as he made a run on the edge of the as he made a run on the same place.

Value of City-Owned Property Peters Says House Would Let Postoffice Confiscate Roads'

"Politics does not mix well with health and charity," is Governor Whitman's answer to the group of persons who have for some time tried to lay before him matters relating to the detailed work, or organization, of the state charitable institutions. In a statement issued to "The News," the official publication of the State Charities Aid Association, the Governor declared that he expected heads of departments to perform the duties for which they were appointed, and that he would hold them responsible for so doing.

"If politics has crept into any of these departments, I expect the departmental authorities to eliminate it," he said. "They must keep their social welfare activities free from political entanglements. I do not wish them to delay their work in order to consult me about details."
